MISSION RETURNEES

On the 11th of May 2021, Commissioner Fuiavailiili Egon Lincoln Keil and the Police Executive, welcome back the United Nation Mission in South Sudan team of 15 Samoa Police Members. They were acknowledged for completing their tour of duty, and upholding the good reputation of the Samoa Police Service while deploying overseas for a peace keeping mission

SPPCS is very proud of your accomplishment as ambassadors for Samoa and its people, despite the many challenges faced, due to long term separation with families as well as the COVID 19 Epidemic.

TANUMALALA BAKERY

In the month of May 2021, Tanumalala Prisons & Corrections Service, baked their own breads, as part of their rehabilitation programs, using a new constructed bakery funded by New Zealand Government.

The SPPCS aim, is to instill skills in order to equipped prisoners after serving their time in prison, to support them with their rehabilitation back to the community.

Commissioner Fuiavailiili Egon Lincoln Keil was given with some freshly baked bread for quality assesment as shown in the picture above

An impressive progress was spotted, on how prisoners showed interests in the lifeskill as introduced.

As you can see in the picture, there is an inclusion of long and twists donuts as well as masipopo in the bakery.
