ROAD SAFETY CAMPAIGN

18th March 2021

Commissioner Fuiavailiili Egon Keil and Executives met with business owners and representatives of major local businesses to discuss road safety measures relating to Heavy Duty vehicles.

Commissioner highlighted the need to work together to ensure safety on our roads. Business owners were provided with statistics of traffic accidents. SPPCS also used the opportunity to highlight the gruesome reality of deaths as a result of preventable accidents.

Owners and representatives also provided feedback to the teams. SPPCS acknowledged the support of everyone involved and we are looking forward to the collaborative efforts in making our roads safe for all of Samoa.

Working together for a safe and secure Samoa.

INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY

"I take great pride as being one of many advocates for women rights and recognizing gender equality in our workforce, there is no doubt women face ongoing discrimination in many work environment on a daily basis, across all Ministries there is no exception"

Women now hold key positions in the Ministry of Police, Prisons & Corrections. Deputy & Assistant Commissioner, Directors of Corporate Services, CEO Legal, Superintendents, Inspectors and Manager of Female Custody

'Choose to challenge' - Our service is a calling with many challenges and having the hindsight to know where you've been, the foresight to know where you are going, and the insight to know when you are going too far.

The inspirational speech also reflected her back when she had just returned from scholarship and how she struggled to look for a job. Later on landing on a male dominant challenging career of her life with which then, make her the first female Deputy Commissioner in Samoa's history.

Deputy Commissioner Papalii Monalisa Tiai-Keti
