

Samoa Police, Prison & Correction Services

Newsletter

Warm Greetings to you all.

You have my immense thanks for all the contribution you have made. Much of our Ministry's success is due to your hard work, dedication and cooperation.

In this issue, here are some of the activities and events taken place within the month of September 2020.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- ◆ Executive Appointments
- ◆ Promotion Ceremony.
- ◆ Mother's Day celebration
- ◆ Police Remembrance Day
- ◆ Home of the Aged.
- ◆ Recruit PT and Computer Test.
- ◆ Recruit of 2018 & 2020.
- ◆ Farewell Jodie.

Just reminding you all to send photos of events or activities you wish to publish on our monthly newsletter.

Email address: stats@police.gov.ws

EXECUTIVE APPOINTMENTS.

In an effort by the Commissioner to maintain the momentum of daily operations, new appointments and changes have taken place amongst the senior hierarchy of our Ministry.

Appointed, the Deputy Commissioner Auapaau Logoitino Filipo, who was previously the officer In-Charge of the Criminal Investigation Division.

Other appointments made were at the Assistant Commissioner level includes the confirmation of the appointment of Assistant Commissioner of Police Leiataua Samuelu Afamasasga, who was previously the Office In-Charge of the General Policing and Muliagatele Lorraine Lees who was the Officer-In-Charge of the Training Unit. The appointment of Ms Lydia Nuufou Lemalu Jahnke to the position of ACEO Legal has added great value and high expectations in terms of legal views amongst policies and directions of the Ministry.

Samoa Police, Prison & Correction Services

Newsletter

CO & NCOS POMOTION.

This is your day to shine. Do not tarnish what you have accomplished by losing sight of who you are when you wear your uniform. What you have chosen to do is a mission, a calling, no less, as guardians of the public safety.

Remembrance Day
29th September

REMEMBERANCE DAY.

On 29 September each year, we pause to remember the Samoa Police employees who have passed away over the past 12 months. This is a time for members of the Samoa Police and the community to honour the dedicated men and women in blue who have died serving their community.

Samoa Police, Prison & Correction Services

Newsletter

Treat the Elderly with respect and dignity
Their today is your tomorrow

HOME OF THE AGED: MAPUIFAGALELE.

Our monetary donation and as well as the music therapy provided by our very own Police Band for their welfare and administration and to reaffirm our appreciation and service for our senior citizens for their continuous prayers and blessings.

NEW RECRUITS FITNESS AND COMPUTER TEST.

In the Ministry of Police, we value the importance of training our officers. The training process is a rigorous and thorough process to give police recruits the best head start in their career with us

Samoa Police, Prison & Correction Services

Newsletter

END OF PROBATION & 2 YEARS IN SERVICE

2018 RECRUITS.

The end of one journey, is the beginning of another. Congratulations on all of your hard work over the last 2 years. Your efforts and sacrifices do not go unnoticed even if we don't always tell you how appreciated you are. Keep up the good work.

RECRUIT of 2008.

I will defend my nation,
I will defend my brothers,
I will help the weak and those in need,
I will sacrifice for my people,
I will laugh in the face of danger,
I was born to serve and not to be served,
I will help the poor and stand up to hate.
Make no mistake, we are the recruit of 2008.

S.A.

Samoa Police, Prison & Correction Services

Newsletter

